

From: The Council of PARMA

To:

Dwinyr: Mighty Dwarven Warrior
Eldred: Magician Extraordinary
Rendar and Sornak: Great Warrior Priests of Kurn
Lydel and Kimit: Wizard Priests of Jordan
Lindle and Darkbiene: Scholars of Nerdan

This council wishes to express it's gratitude for the many blows struck against our misguided neighbor, Karcack, who felt it necessary to kill citizens of Ferusk in order to defend what they erroneously considered theirs, by the afore mentioned individuals of high position in our land. It has been decided that these individuals will be given the special title of 'Council Ensign' which prevents any future problems of legality. In addition, and not to be mentioned to any outsider, those above will be knighted and invited to join the league of the Janissarian Knights (where secular ties are permitted). Should any of you not elect to join you may maintain yourselves in the special position of Janissarian reserves. Duke Morion would be pleased to receive you any time within the next two days.
